

Completeness for PAMs

This worksheet contains two completeness checks described in the QA/QC procedures document.

These can be used by MS to perform QC checks for completeness prior to submission. There is no requirement for MS to conduct these checks, however, ETC/ACM reviewers will conduct them following submission for all MS, so it may avoid unnecessary communications later if the checks are conducted internally. Space is provided for any MS comments.

| 1. Completeness check for the individual policies |
| Please use this table for internal completeness checks before you make your submission. Click on (+) sign by row 210 to expand the number of rows then delete the extra rows in this table after your final policy has been entered. This table checks that for each policy (row) entered in the 'Policies&Measures' worksheet all the required information has been completed in all the columns. Information which MUST be completed has been categorised as mandatory qualitative (1) and mandatory quantitative (2) (dark blue in 'Policies and measures' sheet). The information that should be completed if possible is categorised as recommended qualitative (3) and recommended quantitative (4) (light blue in 'Policies and measures' sheet). To view the completeness contributing to each of the four categories, open the hidden rows by using the (+) above the columns M, Q, X and AQ. For each PAM look across the columns and check any red cell reference. Complete information will be blank in this table, whereas a red cell reference indicates that the corresponding cell is incomplete in the 'Policies and measures' sheet. Where data can be entered into a range of cells such as sectors (columns X-AG) the formulae considers the whole range but just returns the first cell as a red cell reference if the range is blank. |

2. Completeness check for the number of policies reported

Please use this table for internal completeness checks before you make your submission. This table checks that at least one policy (row) has been entered in the 'Policies&Measures' sheet for all the EU Directives that required MS transposition. Information MUST be complete for all policies in this list. It is also possible to link national policies to EU programmes and regulations but these are not included in the completeness check, see table 3.

To view the completeness against the EU policy list, open the hidden rows by using the + above column M.

For each instance where an EU policy has not been reported according to the completeness check in column C, please check that the appropriate link has been made in the 'Policies&Measures' worksheet in columns N-P. The list in this table can be used to complete the EU policy links in the 'Policies&Measures' sheet. Note: text must match exactly for the check to work so avoid free-hand typing in the 'Policies&Measures' sheet unless the EU policy is missing from the list below.
